It is the policy of FinGroup to restrict access to all current and former clients’ information (i.e., information and records pertaining to personal background, investment objectives, financial situation, tax information/returns, investment holdings, account numbers, account balances, etc.) to those employees and affiliated/nonaffiliated entities who need to know that information in order to provide products or services in furtherance of the client's engagement of FinGroup. In that regard, FinGroup may disclose the client’s information: (1) to individuals and/or entities not affiliated with FinGroup, including, but not limited to the client’s other professional advisors and/or certain service providers that may be recommended or engaged by FinGroup in furtherance of the client's engagement of FinGroup (i.e., attorney, accountant, insurance agent, broker-dealer, investment adviser, account custodian, record keeper, banker, etc.); (2) required to do so by judicial or regulatory process; or (3) otherwise permitted to do so in accordance with the parameters of applicable federal and/or state privacy regulations. The disclosure of information contained in any document completed by the client for processing and/or transmittal by FinGroup to facilitate the commencement/continuation/termination of a business relationship between the client and/or between FinGroup and a nonaffiliated third party service provider (i.e., broker-dealer, investment adviser, account custodian, record keeper, insurance company, etc.), including, but not limited to, information contained in any document completed and/or executed by the client in furtherance of the client's engagement of FinGroup (i.e., advisory agreement, client information form, etc.), shall be deemed as having been automatically authorized by the client with respect to the corresponding nonaffiliated third party service provider.

FinGroup permits only authorized employees and affiliates who have signed a copy of FinGroup’s Privacy Policy to have access to client information. Employees violating FinGroup’s Privacy Policy will be subject to FinGroup’s disciplinary process. Additionally, whenever FinGroup hires other organizations to provide services to FinGroup’s clients, FinGroup will require them to sign confidentiality agreements and/or the Privacy Policy.
